

- (a) Obtains or attempts to obtain, by the use of or attempt to use or threat to use force, violence, or coercion, the payment of money or other valuable considerations, or the purchase or rental of property or protective services, not including, however, the payment of wages by a bona-fide employer to a bona-fide employee; or
- (b) Obtains the property of another, with his consent, induced by wrongful use of force or fear, or under color of official right; or
- (c) Commits or threatens to commit an act of physical violence or physical injury to a person or property in furtherance of a plan or purpose to violate sections (a) or (b); or
- (d) Conspires or acts concertedly with any other person or persons to commit any of the foregoing acts; shall, upon conviction thereof, be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment from one to ten years or by a fine of $10,000, or both.

“Wrongful” defined. SEC. 3. (a) As used in this Act the term “wrongful” means in violation of the criminal laws of the United States or of any State or Territory.

“Property”, etc., not to include wages. (b) The terms “property”, “money”, or “valuable considerations” used herein shall not be deemed to include wages paid by a bona-fide employer to a bona-fide employee.

Initiating prosecutions. SEC. 4. Prosecutions under this Act shall be commenced only upon the express direction of the Attorney General of the United States.

Separability provisions. SEC. 5. If any provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Jurisdiction. SEC. 6. Any person charged with violating this Act may be prosecuted in any district in which any part of the offense has been committed by him or by his actual associates participating with him in the offense or by his fellow conspirators: Provided, That no court of the United States shall construe or apply any of the provisions of this Act in such manner as to impair, diminish, or in any manner affect the rights of bona-fide labor organizations in lawfully carrying out the legitimate objects thereof, as such rights are expressed in existing statutes of the United States.
